The goal of this Bible reading plan is to enable you to gain familiarization with your copy of the Word of God. In doing this, you will also be able to see connections between various parts of the Scriptures as they deal with similar themes.

Begin reading one chapter from each of the ten lists each day. Mark off the chapters you have read at each sitting. Some people find it easier to read five in the morning and five at night. You may wish to read them all at the same time or to break it up at other intervals during the day. It is your choice.

Don't read too fast or too slow. You are not skimming, nor are you trying to track down every word and place name. You are reading to familiarize yourself with where these things are and to gain an overview of the message. If you fall behind, don't worry, just pick up where you left off.

You may choose to read the lists in different order, for instance, instead of going in numerical order, you may want to alternate between the Old and New Testaments.

Also note that each list takes different days to complete. This means that this reading experience will never be the same twice in a row. You will always be reading a different combination of chapters each day.
